Sales Journey : Before/After

PROBLEM

This US-based luxury accessories brand faced hurdles in streamlining sales, identifying future buyers, and optimizing their ad budget. Relying solely on post boosting fell short in driving the brand's growth in a competitive market.

SITUATION

The brand used to get a mere 1 or 2 orders weekly through post boosting. Yet significant potential sales were foregone due to the absence of a robust marketing approach.

SOLUTION

Post website launch, we implemented conversion-driven strategies, leveraging pixels, celebrity content, past customer data, and optimized purchase campaigns. Introducing a strategic offer—buy 2 get 1 free—significantly boosted our Average Order Value (AOV) and Return on Ad Spend (ROAS), resulting in a successful and profitable campaign.

RESULT

- ROAS - 2.84x
- CPA - $42.1,
- Checkout - 150
- Purchase - 43
- Add to cart - 337
- CTR - 2.36%

FUNNEL STRUCTURE

- 1 We have been doing boosting post 1-2 posts simultaneously to get as many as DM as possible through profile visits in USA which would eventually help us create LLA of Instagram engagers or to remarket to past engagers.
- 2 Once we keep getting conversions through DM. We collect user mail id, phone no. name. location to create super LLA of purchaser as well as audience and product testing campaigns.
- 3 To nurture non-buyers effectively, we targeted website visitors, add-to-cart users, and initiate checkout audiences with strategic content—showcasing diverse products, reviews, and user-generated content. This approach significantly boosted ROAS and reduced CPA in November, enhancing overall campaign performance.
